THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

IRON TIES vs. ROPE.
FOR BALING COTTON.

The New Orleans "Annual Statement and Prices Current" of 31st August, 1868, says:
"The marked success of iron ties, for baling Cotton, has so completely superseded the use of bale rope, that the supplies of the latter have been hardly sufficient to constitute a market, the receipts comprising only 3 310 coils against 25,193 last year."

NEW YORK.
THE
UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
NEW YORK.
Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,731, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, lives long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death.

AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.	AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.
25	$14.92	$33.10	45	$26.67	$ 4.1.63
30	17.02	36 44	50	30.66	50 16
35	19.78	40.53	55	36.98	60 73
40	23.47	45.51	60	60 83	83 90

All the improved descriptions of Life and Endowment Policies issued on the stock plan a greatly reduced rates.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing the return of all premiums paid in addition to the amount insured.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing a reduction of fifty per cent. of the premium after the third annual payment.

The undersigned having been appointed General Agents for the States of North and South Carolina, for the above STERLING Company, desire Agents in all the principal towns and sections in said States. To live and energetic Agents, who are WILLING and ANXIOUS to work, liberal terms will be entered into. COMMISSIONS GOOD.

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the specialties requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this insult to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER ELSE YOU WORK, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULD'NT HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. ONE GOOD REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN. GO AFTER THE WOMEN FIRST. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX UNTIL THEY ARE HOARSE. IF YOU WILL MANAGE TO REPLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND RINGS AND LACES FRANK BLAIR SHOOK FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN, WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT AROUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD——! THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE YANKEES TOO ARE THE BETTER IT TAKES. OUR EXPERIENCE WITH FEMALE REBS IS, THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VAST AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO HAVE IT APPRECIATED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS, DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, AS YOU CANVASS THE STATE, TO LOOK AFTER THE WOMEN. YOU ARE ALL GOOD LOOKING AND THEY KNOW IT, BUT WITH NATIVE MODESTY, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST—DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR EYES—THEY GLARE LIKE YOUNG LEOPARDS BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON NO BLUE DEATH-STRICKEN PAWN'S IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO DEEP. DON'T READ JUDGE PEARSON'S LETTER TO THEM, BUT GIVE THEM BURNS AND SHELLEY TOGETHER AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IF NOT IN YOUR PANTS, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

MILITIA ORDER SUSPENDED.

A short time ago GOV. Holden and his organ, the "Woman Insulter," seemed determined to organize his Detailed Militia in defiance of the remonstrances of the press and people, of the laws of Congress, and the orders of the military authorities of the United States, contending that the State of North Carolina had been restored to all her rights and privileges in the Union and was fully competent to manage her own internal affairs. If the State of North Carolina had been restored to full equality with the other States, GOV. Holden ought to have remembered, that she is still subject to the Constitution of the United States and to all laws made by Congress, in conformity thereto, and that all laws passed by the reconstructed Legislature of North Carolina in violation of the Federal Constitution and laws, must be null and void.

Whether North Carolina has really been restored yet to all her rights and to equality with the other States, is a dubious question, so long as Congress claims the right under its laws to hold the State under military surveillance and to hold her in times of peace, subject to military authority, an authority still tacitly claimed and exercised by the military.

It is, however, somewhat gratifying that "the Governor" at length manifests some misgivings as to the safety of taking matters in his own hands, and blindly running a tilt against the authorities of the United States. The Standard, of Saturday last, announces that "the Governor's" Adjutant General Fisher, has issued his order suspending his previous order to organize the "Detailed Militia." We presume that Gen. Meade advised our war-like "Governor" that he was treading on dangerous ground, and must hold in his horse a while.

DISCUSSION.—Our Wilmington exchanges state, that by consent, a discussion of the issues of the two parties took place in that City, on Wednesday night last, between Col. O. H. Dockery and Col. A. A. McKoy, the rival candidates for Congress in that District. Col. Dockery led in the discussion, followed by Col. McKoy and Col. D., in a short rejoinder. Good feeling and good order prevailed, and our friends say that Col. Dockery was literally "skinned." Col. McKoy can do that for him at any time, and in such a genteel good humored way as to keep up a pleasant state of feeling. This is the way to do it.

THE NEW YORK WORLD.

The ability of the World is beyond question, but that it does not sometimes blunder, will not be denied even by its able editors. It is human to err, and we doubt not that the World has seldom erred so egregiously, as in its double leaded leader on Thursday last.

Its review of the recent elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, and its eloquent compliment to the vigor of "the youthful, indomitable Democracy," and the causes to which it attributes their temporary defeat, was so glowing and we take it so correct, that to our mind, it furnishes the most palpable and conclusive argument, against the conclusion to which it comes, i. e that no change is needed in the principles or platform of the Democratic party, but in one or both of its candidates.

The World relies too much upon its own powers, and the New Orleans journals are equally blinded, to suppose that the great Democratic party, after a careful and patient survey of the ground in Convention, composed of the leading men of the country, and an almost unanimous choice of its candidates, Messrs. Seymour and Blair, and after a most vigorous canvass for three months, now on the very eve of the election, could sway the popular will of the party by its manifesto, to abandon its tried and tested leaders. It savors of an amount of vanity, imprudence and self-confidence, which would hardly be justifiable in the entire press of the country.

We are glad that Messrs. Tilden, Belmont and Schell have hastily put their veto upon the proposition, for the reason, that if they are truly devoted to the principles of the Democratic platform, it screens them from that prompt condemnation of the Democratic and Conservative masses, who were ready because of their relations to the World and their supposed control of it, to fix upon one or all of them, the blame of the World's blunder and imprudence.

Prior to the nomination of Messrs. Seymour and Blair, our admiration of the ability and judiciousness of the World was very great, but candor compels us to say, that since their nomination, from some cause, its ability and eliquent have not been so manifest, either in its defence of the principles or the candidates of the Democratic party.—Its tone has too plainly indicated a doubt either of the one or the other, and it has failed to make those strong blows against the enemy, which has signalized it in former times. There may be private reasons for this decline in vigor and power having no connection with the politics of the paper.

At all events, we unhesitatingly reject the suggestions of the World, if it really means what the public so generally supposes it to mean, by its article, a change of front to the opposition by a change of candidates. If we had had the selection of candidates, we might not have selected Messrs. Seymour and Blair, nor would we have chosen Judge Chase, but since the nomination of the former, hating the impolitic and objectionable letter of Gen. Blair, those gentlemen have constantly grown in our estimation. We doubt, seriously, if there is a gentleman in the country whose political knowledge, statesmanship, great prudence, and above all, his high personal integrity, more eminently fit him to occupy the Presidential chair at the present crisis, than the Hon. Horatio Seymour, of New York. With the prospect of a Radical Congress, no Democrat would probably secure more respect and confidence from the opposition than Mr. Seymour.

Let the Democratic and Conservative masses remain firm and true to their principles and candidates. Let them do their duty, manfully and firmly, and press their cause the more earnestly, because of the recent untoward results. We believe that success is still within the reach of the Democracy. But if we are beaten we can submit like men and acquiesce in the decision of the great American people, however adverse to our wishes.

ORGANIZED FORCES.—We have protested against the insinuations of "Gov." Holden and others, that there are organized bands in the State arming. No such exist, and we are surprised at the unfounded assumption. Yet it is known that the Union Leaguers are organized and many of them drilled, if not armed. On Saturday, we are told, a Union League of blacks marched up in this City to register in regular military style, the Captain flourishing a drawn sword. Now if a Seymour and Blair Club had come up in this style, dressed in uniform, commanded by a Captain, with a drawn sword, it would have been telegraphed North at once as evidence of the belligerent spirit of the rebels. And yet it is all right in the Leagues!

Grant says he will have, if elected, no policy to interfere with the will of the people. But how does he mean to ascertain that will? Evidently in the same way as he found out in his letter of August 17, 1867, that "it is unmistakably the expressed wish of the country that General Sheridan should not be removed from his present command," whereas in the elections of the October following, the people showed that they were rather happy than otherwise to have that officer taken away from trampling on a desolate people, and sent to perform his celebrated ride on the Indians of the plain. But let us have peace.—N. Y. World.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS.—The Goldsboro Messenger of Friday states that the following disposition of the garrison (40th, Infantry) now stationed at Goldsboro,' has been directed in accordance with a recent order of Gen. Meade, commanding this department: Companies B and I will garrison Raleigh; Co. H, Weldon; Co. F, Plymouth; Co. A, Fayetteville; Co. G, Salisbury; Co. C, Charlotte; Co. K, Greensboro'—several of them to march on foot to their respective destinations. Companies E and D remain at Goldsboro.'

The above mentioned order will be in force for thirty days.

SETTLERS IN THE SOUTH.—A retired publisher of New York, who, two years ago, purchased a farm in South Carolina, is reported to have cleared during the whole of that time, $500 a month, by the culture of fruit. Northerners, who, just after the war, settled near Jacksonville, Florida, are reported as having rapidly accumulated fortunes.

From the Hartford (Conn.) Times.

THE FUTURE OF THE UNITED STATES.

The public press and speakers of both political parties agree in saying that upon the result of the approaching Presidential election depends the future of this country. Undoubtedly this is true. The two parties which are now struggling for power are founded upon principles and animated with purposes diametrically opposite. The Radicals contemplate the essential destruction of Republican institutions. They have already, in nearly one-third of the country, supplanted the reign of law by the reign of arbitrary military power. The bayonet and not the ballot is the supreme power in ten States. This is the vital principle of the Radical organization, and will mold and control its policy if once again seated in power. Written Constitutions will be made to yield as they have been heretofore, by this party, to the demands of this policy. There can be no mistaking the purposes of the Radical leaders. They avow that they have entered upon a career of indefinite progress, and they assert openly that they intend to carry out their scheme of subjecting the country to the control of military force under the direction of a partisan Congress. They affirm that their plan of reconstructing the Government on a totally different basis from that laid by its founders ought to be and shall be carried out. The power of the General Government they intend to make supreme, not only over those questions wherein its supremacy is secured by the Constitution, but over all others which Congress chooses. They have entered upon this enterprise with a spirit and policy in harmony with their designs. Having, under the form of Congressional enactments, annulled the Constitutions and laws of a number of States, they have not only undertaken to prescribe the qualifications of voters, but have declared that a large portion of the people shall not vote at all. These enactments they enforce by the presence and control of a large army. They forbid those whom they suppose to be unwilling to support the Radical party from voting at all; and to secure conformity to the edict, they confront the voters with infantry and artillery. They thus tear up the foundations of government in and by the States, and elect others, not upon the consent of the governed, but upon the consent of the army and a fragmentary Congress.

What are to be the final stages in the progress of such a policy? It may be convenient for politicians and editors to enter at this question and fling back the adage, "Let him laugh who wins." This may satisfy those who are thirsting for power and patronage, or who are animated by sentiments of partisan hate and revenge, but it will fail to satisfy many anxious and thinking persons, even among the Republicans themselves. If a party in power at Washington is to dictate laws to the people of the States upon matters over which the States reserved exclusive control by the express words of the Constitution, and then use military force to prevent the people from voting their policy down, what is there of security or free government left? After this, what barrier remains to the march to absolute power? The right of Congress to declare who shall vote in the States, implies the right to declare who shall not vote. The same right to declare who shall or who shall not vote in Georgia, exists to declare who shall or shall not vote in Connecticut. The authority derived from the Constitution is the same in both cases. That instrument makes no distinction between States. It confers upon Congress precisely the same power over South Carolina as it does over Massachusetts—no more, no less. If that body can enfranchise and disfranchise voters in one State, it can do it in another. The Radical party has, through the forms of statutes, disfranchised hundreds of thousands of its political opponents, and enfranchised still more whom it expects to secure as its political friends. To the former he has said: You will vote against us, therefore you shall not vote at all. It may be said that it has not forbidden all its political opponents from voting. Very true; but it has proscribed, or thought it had proscribed, enough to secure the election of its own candidates. This plan of government can be made just as effectual for the suppression of the voice of the people, as one which totally abolishes the popular elections. To this it practically must come at last, if the Radical policy, as carried out now, is inaugurated. Whether the Federal Constitution is formally abolished or not, can make no difference, as its provisions, so far as they stand in the way of party ascendency, are treated as a dead letter. The laws and constitutions of the State, though made in conformity, or not repugnant to that Constitution, are openly annulled by Congress, and the army is ordered out to enforce the annulling acts.

This is a strange spectacle for the people of these United States. The privilege of voting for their rulers, regulated, not by themselves, but by a central power, backed by military force! And to make it as impressive a spectacle as possible, the General of the army, to whom is entrusted by Congress the duty of preventing the prescribed voters from voting is made the candidate of the party which thus seeks to perpetuate its power.

This is the principle and this is the policy of the intelligent portion of Grant's supporters. They disfranchised a large body of white men, not because they had been rebels, but because they would not vote for the Radical candidates. They enfranchised the blacks because they felt sure that they would vote for their candidates. Had the whites been Radicals, their right to vote would never have been taken away.—Had the blacks been Democrats, not one of them would have been made a voter. There is not a decent Radical who would deny this under oath. Thus a system of political or rather party proscription and favor is adopted and enforced by the bayonet, as that is the only instrument which can secure its success. This system is not covertly but openly pursued. Its cardinal principle, the pivot on which it turns, is the asserted right of a party in power to confer the right to vote upon its supporters, and deprive any others of that right. It does not make participation in the late rebellion the test of political rights at all. The moment a man at the South avows himself a Radical his disabilities are removed. If a Democrat, though he was a Union man throughout the war, and suffered proscription at the hands of the Confederate authorities, he is disfranchised, disqualified from holding office. It may be conceded that this system has not been practically executed upon the whole people. But it may be conclusively replied that the right and policy of the system is asserted, and its execution has been carried, or its supporters supposed they had carried it, far enough to secure its substantial fruits, that is, a majority for their party candidates in the coming election. Future elections they can carry in the same way. The system has in it all the elements of power and right (so far as it has any right) to prohibit any but a Radical Republican from voting in any State, and to confer that right on all persons who will vote for the candidates of that party. Like all the plans of unlimited and irresponsible power, it is extremely simple and rests alone upon the elements of will and force. The old Roman maxim, "The will of the Prince is law," is only slightly changed to "The will of the Party is law." To this system of government the Radical party now ask that portion of the people who are still permitted to vote to commit themselves. It remains to be seen whether they will or not. If they do, that party will have a clear path before it. With the army under its control, and the power to disfranchise its political opponents, it can accomplish whatever it chooses, except permit a free government to exist. That it will take good care to prevent that, no one, not a fool, can doubt. With the power to disfranchise every voter opposed to its schemes, it can and will so exercise it as to prevent the people from electing any candidate who is not pledged to support any policy that party may dictate. It can always secure a majority by depriving its opponents of the privilege of voting. If disfranchising 300,000 voters, as has already been done, will not secure the future, Congress can disfranchise as many millions as it thinks necessary. With the Treasury and the army, it can continue to treat the Constitution as a dead letter, impose what taxes it will, for what purposes it will. It can try citizens by military commissions, or imprison and shoot them without trial in New England, as it has for years done at the South. It can deprive the people of all appeal to the Courts here as well as there. It can even prohibit New York, Connecticut, and New Jersey from casting any vote for President, just as it has Virginia, Texas and Mississippi, and for the same reason, to wit: for fear that they may vote against some future Grant and Colfax. In short, whatever that party may choose to do in the exercise of irresponsible power, it can do, though nineteen-twentieths of the present voters should be opposed to it. It has only to declare, through a law of Congress, that its opponents shall not vote, as it has already declared that they shall not in many States, and then send the army to enforce the prohibition. There will be then no escape from the jaws of this despotism, except by an uprising of at least nine-tenths of the people, and a fraternization of the army with them, and then only through a bloody struggle.

Truly, much depends on the result of the coming election. That portion of the people who are not disfranchised already are to decide whether they are to hold their rights hereafter under Constitutional guarantees, or whether they are to hold them upon such terms as partisan will, backed by irresponsible forces, may prescribe. Is there a freeman, in whose heart the last spark of love for liberty or hope for the future is not extinguished, who can vote for a party which has embarked in this career of crime and shame?

GREENBACKS FOR ELECTIONS.

The $20,000 checks won so easily and spent so freely, did their work in the October elections. The Pennsylvania and other manufacturers received the $70,000,000, by taking off so much of the Internal Revenue tax as procured that result. If Congress would take off the tax then these selfish men promised to buy a result which nothing but money could accomplish. But what a commentary upon free Government, when Elections are thus bought, and when the wealth of rich men is thus used to buy the people!

"Tis farce the land, to hastening ills a prey,
Where wealth accumulates and men decay."

It was just such misconduct, just such use of wealth and luxury, and just such abuse of place and power that destroyed the old Republics of the Jews, the Republics of Greece and Rome, and the Dutch Republic. Ex-Judges and eminent merchants, whose example should be pure, should pause long enough to count the cost of elections won by violence and bribes. The money cankers the heart, corrupts the mind, and destroys the State. All that a Radical Destructive Party wins by such efforts the State loses.

The rich capitalists and manufacturers who spend their tens of thousands so openly to buy up the ballot box, of course, will but nerve men of less means to work all the harder. Already the $20,000 of Judge Pierrepont has been doubled by one, perhaps, less able to pay so large a sum; but when one, once an honored Judge, forgets the stringent State laws respecting elections, and that it is a misdemeanor, punishable by fine or imprisonment, for any person, by—the pernicious example will, in self-defence, find men of spirit who will do their best on the other side.

"any corrupt means or device whatsoever, either directly or indirectly, to attempt to influence any elector in this State in giving his vote;" "to provide or furnish entertainment" for the purpose of promoting a candidate's election, or "to pay for, "procure, or engage to pay for any entertainment," or "to contribute money for any other purpose intended to promote an election of any particular person or ticket, except for defraying the expenses or printing and the circulation of votes, handbills and other papers previous to such election, or for conveying sick, poor or infirm electors to the polls." (1 R. S., p. 363.)—

To the British Parliament, no man not rich can be elected, and by public men of standing, we are making what is so bad in Great Britain a great deal worse in the United States.

Besides, when rich merchants, rich manufacturers, and rich lawyers that pour out their money—made during the country's peril and from its blood—to carry the elections, such an act will but stir the poorer merchants, manufacturers, and men of the professions and of labor, to resist this open use of money to crush them. The war has made the rich richer, and the poor poorer. The Bondholder demands equal to 15 per cent. interest in Government paper for all his investments in Government bonds, and this without a tax on his bonds—and then has the effrontery to talk of repudiation, even when offered full gold interest for all his paper investments. Like the horse leech, he cries, "give, give,"—and is not content to give anything in return. It is patriotism to grind down the tax payer, and even when the rich man is receiving his fifteen per cent of blood money he charges repudiation upon Democrats who don't think this is quite the fair thing for the Government.—*N. NOTICE.

THE OFFICE OF THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURance Co. has been removed to the upper rooms over the Clothing Store of Messrs. Andrews & Co., and adjoining the Messrs. Tucker's Hall, where the public are invited to an examination of all the official Reports of the various Insurance Companies of America. Their progress and standing may thus be easily and reliably ascertained. The progress of the old Ætna as thus to be seen, will not fail to secure confidence and patronage of those desiring to provide for themselves or families. This Company has promptly met over sixty thousand dollars in death losses in North Carolina within three years. And, as a guarantee for the future, has now assets over and one hundred and thirty dollars to pay every one hundred of her liabilities. To the weary and anxious enquirer for a place of safe investment, we will while to health and strength upon the subscriber and obtain from $1,000 to $20,000. Delays are often fatal.

NOTICE.

ON Saturday, the 3rd day of October next, I will rent on the premises for the year 1869,

Five Farms

on the Buffaloe plantation, formerly Alexander McKnight's

These places are well watered, healthy, and lie within from two to four miles from Louisburg, and from six to eight from Franklinton.

Persons wishing to rent, will bear in mind that, as Administrator, I can give no pledge beyond the year; but will make liberal allowance per acre for all land cleared, and will furnish nails, ditching and mason's charges for all buildings put up by the renter, while he will be required to make and keep clean such ditches, (bottom or ball-side,) as I may designate, and to keep the fences, roads and houses in good order.

Both personal security and a lien on the crop will be required; and bidders will be expected to give the names of their sureties before they bid off the property.

Mr. W. W. Warmouth, living on the "Montgomery Place," will show either or all these farms to persons looking for homes.

Also, at the same time and place, will be sold 4 Ox Wagons, 1 Gin, 1 Thresher, 1 Straw Cutter, 1 Corn Sheller, 300 Bushels Cotton Seed, several Shot Guns, 2 Saddles, &c., &c.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY has paid another loss. Read the following:

$3.000.

WILMINGTON, Sept. 16th, 1868.

Received of the Ætna Life Insurance Company, by the hands of W. H. Crow, General Agent, Three thousand dollars, in full payment of all demands upon the Life Policy of my deceased husband, Larkin F. Bunn. No. of said Policy 48,732.
With many thanks for this prompt payment in the hour of my affliction and need,
I am, respectfully,
HESTER A. BUNN.

Added to the above, may be mentioned another fact, proving the wisdom and beneficial results of Life Insurance, and also the fidelity and good faith in which this old and well tried Company deals with its members.

In less than three years this Company has done more than all others combined, to relieve the wants of the widows and orphans of North Carolina.

It has paid Policy, No.	15,273	$5,000

Mt. Vernon Springs (at night,)	"	29
Bear Creek,	"	30
Pittsboro',	"	31

Several changes have been made in the above, to conform them to appointments previously made in Chatham. Our friends will please note them. J. J. Davis, Esq., candidate for Elector, and Col. E. G. Haywood will be at Pittsboro' on the 31st.—Maj. York, H. K. Nash, Esq., and others, are expected to be at Buckhorn on the 31st.

Messrs. Dowcese an l McDonald are invited to be present at these meetings. The time will be divided with them.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

W. M. Robbins, Esq., Elector for the 6th District on the Seymour and Blair Ticket, will address the people at the following times and places:

Taylorsville, Monday,	Oct.	19.
Statesville, Tuesday,	"	20.
Newton, Wednesday,	"	21.
Lincolnton, Thursday,	"	22.

Yadkinville, Saturday,	"	31.

The Elector on the Grant Ticket will find Mr. Robbins willing to divide time with him, at any of these appointments.

See advertisement of Austin, Corbin & Co., in another column.

A SEYMOUR AND BLAIR RALLY.

A meeting of the members of the Middle and Western Ward Clubs will be held at the Court House to-night.

Our friends of the Eastern Ward and citizens, generally, are invited to attend.—Good speeches may be expected.

NEW ADVERTISEMENT.—Douglas Bell calls attention to new arrivals at his Family Grocery.

RULES OF THE COURTS FOR TAKING DEPOSITIONS.—We are indebted to a legal friend for a copy of the rules of the Courts for taking depositions, drawn up by careful and able hands and approved by the Court. They will cover about a page of foolscap paper printed and may be obtained at this office, at $1 per quire.

Col. Clurr succeeds Gen. Miles as Assistant Commissioner of the Freedman's Bureau in this State.

ROBBERIES.—These are becoming more frequent. Col. Barringer's premises have been robbed on several occasions, and a few nights ago, another robbery was effected upon his poultry yard and garden.

REGISTRATION.—We understand that a number of colored boys, under 21 years of age, have been about the registration box to register. Some, perhaps, may have done so, but persons knowing them and their ages have defeated the intentions of a number of them. It is important to attend to this. The actual census of the State, when taken in 1870 with care, will show that there cannot be but 70,000 or 80,000 colored males over 21 years of age in the State.

WHERE TO REGISTER.—Would it not be better for our fellow citizens, residing even a short distance out of the City, to register and vote at the approaching election, at some of the country precincts? The number of voters, black and white, belonging to the city, could hardly cast their votes, without great inconvenience and the fear of collision, if that number should be largely increased by voters from the country. We throw out the suggestion to be considered.

A GREAT WONDER.—The proprietor, W. W. Holderness, Esq., of Thomasville, N. C., has just shown us the most complete trap for catching rats, or other animals, we have ever seen. To understand its character and its efficiency it must be seen, we cannot describe it. It is regarded at the patent office Washington City, as superior to anything out, and its exhibition last week at the Henderson Fair, received not only a premium but met with universal commendation. Mr. H. makes the trap and furnishes them to persons buying State or county rights. They can be retailed at $1. It is the invention of those skillful artizans, Messrs. Guerrant and Fields, Leaksville, N. C. See advertisement.

OUR JAIL.—TREATMENT OF PRISONERS.—Several of the colored men who have been recently confined in the jail of this City, have called upon us and complained of the hard fare and lack of water which they experienced while in prison. The large number in our jail may have rendered it difficult to supply them as well as they ought to have been, and it may be that the allowance made for feeding prisoners will not admit of necessary provision, but if so, the thing should be remedied at once. We call attention to this matter in the interests of humanity, and not to reflect upon the officers having charge of this matter, much less do we allude to it because of a difference of political opinion with them. It is a matter which shou'd be enquired into by the authorities. If the allowance made by the County is too small to provide what is necessary for them, it should be increased.—Men imprisoned for crime should be allowed what is usual and necessary, and should only be curtailed in food and water when it is made by law a part of the penalty for crime. In these cases we are not aware that such penalty existed. We make these statements at the request and upon the evidence furnished by the prisoners. We know nothing beyond this, nor can we vouch for the correctness of their statements.

THE FAIR AT HENDERSON.

We much regret that the necessary attendance of the Associate Editor upon the the Commercial Convention, at Norfolk, prevented us from taking our anticipated visit to the Fair at Henderson, the past week. We regret that our friends have failed to give us a notice of the interesting doings on the occasion.

The large crowd in attendance from the adjoining Counties, the variety and excellency of the articles on exhibition, the splendid hospitality of the people, and the able and eloquent speech of H. K. Nash, Esq., on Thursday, made it a decided success. A large number of premiums were distributed. We shall be obliged to some friend to give us a full account of it.

SUPERIOR COURT.—The trial of Mr. J. Q. Bryant, to which we alluded on yesterday, terminated at a late hour on Friday night, in the acquittal of Mr. Bryant, a verdict fully sustained, we learn, by the evidence of the case. The prosecution was conducted by the Solicitor Gen. Wm. R. Cox, and the "Attorney General," Mr. Coleman. He was ably defended by Hon. D. G. Fowle, Col. E. G. Haywood, Maj. R. C. Badger and Maj. R. W. York. All the parties argued the case, and as usual exhibited much ability; but we have heard Judge Fowle's closing speech for the defence spoken of as the great speech of his life. Every position was sustained by overwhelming facts and arguments. The jury returned a verdict of "not guilty," after a short absence from the box.

For the Sentinel.

"When the storm is over, the Conservative party, representing as it does, the property and intelligence of the State, will take the guidance of affairs, and all will be well."—Judge Pearson's Letter.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—This concluding sentence of Chief Justice Pearson's letter, has, whenever I have seen it, reminded me of the notorious old brindled cow, that gently and generously gave to the maid a large and almost running over pail of milk and then suddenly and unkindly put her dirty hind foot into it, and overturned it.

It is a downright left hand blow from the Judge, and whatever he might have been in the ring, had he entered it, he is certainly an expert in the science of typographical effusions. He seems to have good naturedly tickled and entertained the Radicals through three long pages, until he has secured their confidence, and, in the end, deals them, in vulgar parlance, a "sockdolager with the left" that lays them sprawling in the dirt, quite at a loss to know, "who struck Billy Patterson."

The Judge certainly divides the oyster with all the cunning of Reynard, saying to the Radicals: There are the shells, the largest portion. To the Conservatives: There is what the shells contained, you take that. You have all "the property and intelligence." They don't know any better. They have no intelligence.

But to be more serious. The Judge, it seems, noticed that there was a "storm" impending, aye, that we were even in the midst of it, and yet he is for sending the Captain, Mate, super cargo and all the "intelligence" and seamanship on board, below, and confining them there, leaving the vessel under the control and management of ignorance and incapacity until the "storm is over." Then he would let the Captain, &c., appear upon deck again and take "the guidance of affairs." But, in the meantime the vessel has been stranded upon a rocky shore and is actually breaking up. The crew affrighted and dumbfounded at the consequences of their ignorance and stupid doings and want of seamanship, have taken to the boats and are off. What avails the "intelligence" of the captain, &c., now?—The ship has gone to pieces.

The Judge at the head of an army, to the command of which he has been appointed in consideration of his "intelligence" and military skill, would, according to his theory, upon meeting the enemy, say to his ignorant subordinates: "Men, we are going to have 'a storm!' yonder is the enemy, go at them, do what you can, but I'll remain here at a safe distance so as to save 'the property and intelligence' of the army, and when the battle is over, then I'll take 'the guidance of affairs' again, and 'all will be well.'"

Oh no, Chief Justice, no. The storm is indeed raging. It threatens the destruction of our dearest political interests,—of our noble Constitution—of our existence as a free and independent Republic. It calls loudly for the exertion of the highest "intelligence of the State" and for a full and fair representation of its property; and now, now—now whilst "the storm" rages, is the time to bring all the intelligence into action, and then, "when the storm is over," and all shall have been made "well," then to keep "all well" may be entrusted to a lesser degree of "intelligence."

The Chief Justice a convert to Radicalism! Radicals, be not deluded; what think you, could seduce a man like him from the party that holds "the property and intelligence of the State"? Ech!—nonsense.

A.

THE MISSOURI DISFRANCHISEMENT.

A paragraph is going the rounds of the papers, copied, we believe, from the Missouri Democrat, a Radical sheet, stating the number disfranchised in Missouri are some 25,000. From whatever source taken, this is a shameless falsehood. The actual number disfranchised is notoriously from eighty to ninety thousand persons. The Radicals show no disposition whatever to relax this proscription, but, by means of their registration, have resolved to keep the power of the State in their own hands. The war ceased over three years ago, and to day we have 80,000 disfranchised in Missouri; 80,000 more in Tennessee, and not less than 25,000 or 30,000 in West Virginia. This is the promised "peace" of Gen. Grant. Any true lover of order and peace can judge whether such a policy will promote these objects; or, on the contrary, keep alive friction, bad blood and collision.—Nat. Int.

MORTIFIED, IF NOT WISER.—Mr. B. H. Hill, of Georgia, now in New York, writes a letter to the New York Times, in which he says: 'I shal return home mortified, if not a wiser man. Mortified only because I find in the North a bitter, systematic, adroit and persistent misrepresentation of the temper, desires and views of the Southern whites, far exceeding my anticipations."

THE MOVEMENT AGAINST RITUALISM.

Judge John N. Conyngham, of Pennsylvania, presented to the Episcopal Convention on Monday last twenty memorials signed, he said, numerously by persons claiming to be lay members of the Church, one of which he read, without endorsing it, as follows:

To the Right Reverend the Bishops, Clergy and Lay Delegates of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the United States of America, assembled in General Convention.

Your memorialists, lay members of said Protestant Episcopal Church, respectfully represent that uniformity in the manner of worshipping Almighty God is one of the chief reasons for the use of a Liturgy, and is, in itself, most desirable; that it was the object of the Church of England, and afterwards of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, as appears by the preface to their respective books of Common Prayer, to establish a form of worship which might most "tend to the preservation of peace and unity in the Church, the procuring of reverence, and the exciting of piety and devotion in the worship of God, and, finally, the cutting off occasion, from them that seek occasion, of cavil or quarrel against her Liturgy; that in order to attain these ends the Protestant Episcopal Church in these United States made, at its organization in this country, many important alterations and amendments in the English Book of Common Prayer, all tending to simplify her worship and to promulgate Christianity and the truths of the Gospel to mankind "in the clearest, plainest, most affecting and majestic manner." That of late, many ministers, forgetful of the objects of the fathers of said Church in this country, have introduced various changes in the previously long established manner of conducting divine worship therein, and of performing her rites and ceremonies, novel to our people and not contemplated by the Book of Common Prayer and the canons of the Church, and which do not "tend to the preservation of peace and unity in this Church," nor to "the procuring of reverence and the exciting of piety and devotion in the worship of God," and especially not to the "cutting off occasions, from them that seek occasion, of cavil or quarrel against her Liturgy;" that by reason of the said changes the worship in the churches in this diocese, and of other dioceses, is no longer uniform, and great scandal and dissension have been promoted thereby; that your memorialists deplore the introduction of said changes in the manner of worshipping God by whatever ancient practice in any other church the same may have been recognized, and whatever their intrinsic merit, and express the fervent hope that the same may cease from among us; that, leaving to your honorable body to particularize the practices to which we allude, your memorialists respectfully express their disapproval of all deviations—manifestly on the increase—from the prescribed ritual of our Church, an l of all acts, intentional postures, unaccustomed ministerial garments and personal or church decorations, and all conduct in the celebration of divine worship, and which tend to make the same resemble, in outward seeming, that of the Church of Rome; that, in our judgment, charity and the interests of this Church, as well as good taste require, the abandonment by individuals even of acts not forbidden, if injurious to its peace or likely to be misunderstood by Protestant Christians; wherefore, we respectfully pray that canons may be passed which shall establish and enforce uniformity in divine worship in all our churches, and tend to renew and preserve that simplicity and absence of unnecessary ceremonical which the early Protestant Episcopal Church in this country sought to attain.

The other memorials, Judge Conyngham said, were similar to this one, and from various dioceses. He offered the following new canon in this connection:

Section 1. No ministerial vestment shall be worn by any minister during divine worship, or when present at or officiating in any rite or ceremony of this Church, excepting surplice, stole, bands or gown, which shall be used as heretofore accustomed, on all regular occasions of worship, and at the discretion of the ministers may be used at rites and ceremonies, and no ecclesiastical vestment shall be worn on occasions of divine worship or church ceremonies by choirs or other assistants therein provided. This section shall not be construed to relate to Episcopal vestments.

Sec. 2. Candlesticks, crucifixes or superalters, so called, made of wood or other substances, shall not be used or suffered to stand upon or hang over any communion table as part of furniture or decorations thereof.

Sec. 3. Bowing at the name of Jesus, except in repeating the Creed; turning or bowing towards the communion table, except so far as may be enjoined by the Rubric; making a sign of the cross, except in Baptism; the elevation of either of the elements during Holy Communion or of the alms or oblations of communicants or others; processional singing in churches, except as provided by the Rubrics, and the use of incense in and during the conducting of divine service, are all hereby declared unlawful.

Judge Conyngham moved the reference of these papers to the Committee on Constitution and Canons, and after a long discussion it was so ordered.

Handsome Property for Sale.

WILL BE SOLD, on Tuesday, the 27th of October, 1868, at Auction before the Court House in Tarboro', that very desirable residence lately owned by Jos. W Wimberly, Esq., situated about 4 miles from the town of Tarboro', and within five hundred yards of McNair's crossing on the Tarboro' Branch Railroad.

The Tract consists of

of first-class Piney Woods Land, about 20 acres cleared, balance in original forest growth. The soil is finely adapted to the cultivation of COTTON, CORN and Vegetables. A beautiful Truck or Fruit Farm could be made of it. Several Scuppernong Vines in bearing and a choice lot of selected Peach, Pear, and Apple Trees adjoining the residence.

The Dwelling, a modern-built house of eight rooms, four below and four above, with wide passage on first floor, and verandas in front and rear, is handsomely located in a grove of two acres. A well of purest cold water on the premises. Every necessary out-house, all in a fine state of preservation. This place is situated in a proverbially healthy country, chills and fever being almost unknown, and is about the centre of one of the finest neighborhoods in the country. A residence combining so many advantages is seldom in the market.

Possession given on 1st January, 1869.

Terms—Twelve months credit, with interest from that date.

Or same day and same terms, Jos. W. Wimberly's one-fourth remainder interest in the Wilson Tract of Land, and his one-fourth remainder interest in the Harrison Fund

COME TO A. CREECH'S!
For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in bark again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c. &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but sour, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their indisputable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVEETION!

THE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United states as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except such as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide, that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering); and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was raised the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies, merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partizan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking to their base, and should it succeed in November next and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjugated and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution: and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and it sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be grateful by remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the states and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention It falters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule, without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Governments. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the North Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Au. 14, 1868.

NORTH CAROLINA PAPERS.

DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL WILMINGTON, N. C.

This is the oldest Daily in the State, a leading Democratic journal located in the largest commercial city in the State, and is a large and ably conducted newspaper.
